ORDER:

In the letter read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, has stated that at present, Yelamanchili Circle in Visakhapatnam district is functioning with the following 7 (seven) Law & Order Police Stations and one Traffic Police Station which all together comes to (8) (eight) Police Stations:-

2. Yelamanchili Rural
3. Atchutapuram

7. S. Rayavaram
8. Traffic PS at Adduroad

2. He has further stated that the Yelamanchili Circle is having 45 K.Ms of National Highway and there is a rapid industrial development within the limits of the Circle. Due to the real-estate business, there are several Law & Order problems and labour problems. Besides this, there are road accidents and other Traffic related issues on the National Highway. As such, the Inspector of Police, Yelamanchili Circle is overburdened.

3. He has, therefore, requested to diverge the Yelamanchili Circle into two Circles i.e., Yelamanchili Circle and Nakkapalli Circle with the following Police Stations:-

Sl. No.	Name of the Circle	Police Stations

(2)	Nakkapalli	1. Nakkapalli 2. Payakaraopeta 3. S. Rayavaram 4. Traffic PS at Adduroad

He has also stated that with regard to the post of Inspector of Police, for posting at the newly proposed Nakkapalli Circle Office, one post of Inspector of Police (CCS) which is existing in the District Head Quarters will be shifted and the present staff in the existing Yelamanchili Circle office will be adjusted in the newly created Nakkapalli Circle office. The existing buildings and infrastructural facilities available in Yelamanchili and Nakkapalli Police Stations are sufficient to the Circle Offices for functioning. As such, no financial implications will be involved in the newly created circle office.

5. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has therefore, requested to issue early orders in the matter for smooth functioning of day to day administration.

(P.T.O.)

6. Government after careful consideration of the proposal, hereby diverge the Yelamanchili Circle in Visakhapatnam district into two circles i.e Yelamanchili Circle and Nakkapalli Circle with a condition to shift the post of Inspector of Police post (CCS) that was existing in the District Head Quarters to the newly created Nakkapalli Circle Office and to adjust the present staff in Yelamanchili Circle office to the newly created Nakkapalli Circle office.
